7. Removal of Property at End of Lease. It is understood that the Landlord must have possession and use of all the storage area rented during the winter for other purposes in the spring. Therefore, it is agreed that the Tenant will remove his property on or before the ending date of the lease. If the Tenant does not remove his property as agreed, the Landlord is hereby authorized, without liability to the Landlord, to have such property, removed all at the Tenant's expense, and the Tenant shall pay the Landlord rent for parking his property on Landlord's property outside the building in the sum of $50.00 per each day said property remains on the Landlord's property after the ending date of this lease, unless prior arrangements are agreed upon. If a significant extension of the lease is needed and agreed upon in advance, additional rent may be assessed.

8. Use of the Premises. The Tenant shall use the property for winter storage purposes only, in accordance with the terms of this lease. The property stored by the Tenant shall be in safe and suitable condition for storage.

Utility and Services. It is understood that the Landlord is providing storage space in an unheated building and/or outside areas exposed to the elements and the Landlord shall not be required to and will not provide heat, utilities, or other services for space rented.

9. Liability & Waiver. Renter must provide a certificate of insurance for comprehensive perils physical damage coverage on the stored property. Certificate must be an original and show Cornell Cooperative Extension Madison County as the Certificate Holder. An approved Certificate of Insurance must be provided (no later than 10 days prior to your Entry Date) before any vehicle will be accepted for storage. There will be no exceptions made. Renter assumes all responsibility for loss or damage to vehicle. Cornell Cooperative Extension of Madison County, its officers, directors and employees, assume NO responsibility for any loss, damage to or destruction of the vehicle while in storage or on the grounds regardless of the cause. Renter/owner releases and waives any right of recovery from or subrogation against Cornell Cooperative Extension of Madison County, its officers, directors, and employees for any loss of, damage to or destruction of any of the property of the Renter/Owner regardless of the cause of said loss or damage. This waiver and release shall be in effect regardless of whether the renter/owner has insurance and shall be applicable to and binding on the insurance company or any loss payee or lien holder of the renter. Renter/owner shall hold harmless, Indemnify and defend CCE of Madison, its officers, directors, volunteers and employees against any and all damages or liability imposed on them as a result of the Renter/owners use or occupancy of the space.
10. Insurance. The Landlord shall keep the property insured against fire and other damage for its benefit during the term of this lease, and the Tenant shall keep the personal property stored during the term of this lease insured against loss or other damages for his benefit.
11. Access to the Property. It is understood that the building in which the Tenant's property is stored will be locked during the winter storage period and the Tenant shall only have access to his/or her property with advanced appointment during times conducive to the Landlord's regular schedule. No access to barn without permission.
12. Landlord's Rights Upon Default. If the Tenant fails to pay the rent or any part thereof, when it becomes due, or if the Tenant fails to comply with any other provisions of this agreement, the Landlord may, at its option, terminate this lease or it may sue for the same, or reenter the property, or resort to any legal option.
13. Surrender of the Property. At the expiration of the term of this agreement, the tenant will turn the property back to the Landlord in as good condition as it was at the beginning of the term, necessary wear and damage by the elements excepted.
14. Landlord's Attorney Fees. If the Landlord must hire an attorney to enforce or defend any of the Landlord's rights under this agreement, because of the default of the Tenant in failing to comply with any of the provisions of this agreement, the Tenant shall pay all reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the Landlord.
15. Assignment and Subletting. The Tenant shall not assign his rights and responsibilities under this agreement, nor may he sublet the property, without the prior written consent of the Landlord.
16. Other Persons Bound by this Agreement. Anyone acquiring any interest in this agreement through any of the parties shall be bound by all the terms and conditions of this agreement.
17. Vehicles must remain in building during the lease period unless special arrangements are made. If property is removed at any time during the period, it cannot be returned to storage, without prior arrangements.
